

HÖEGH AUTOLINERS

Höegh Autoliners delivers high quality ocean transportation solutions to global customers. Our vision is a zero emissions future and we are working to reduce our carbon footprint and support decarbonising our customers' supply chain.

Company Name	Höegh Autoliners AS
Owner	Leif Höegh & Co. Holdings AS (60.5%) A.P. Moller - Maersk A/S (38.2%) Andreas Enger, Höegh Autoliners CEO (1.3%)
Established	1927
Chief Executive Officer	Andreas Enger
Head Office	Drammensveien 134, Oslo, Norway
Local Offices	16
Employees	Approximately 350 shore based employees and 1300 seafarers

Ocean Transportation

40 Pure Car and Truck Carrier vessels in a global network of 10 deep sea trades and loops, as well as a shortsea Caribbean service.

Cargo Segments

- Cars and SUVs
- High and Heavy and Breakbulk
- Trucks, Buses and Trailers

Shortsea Service

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| Höegh Autoliners Shortsea Americas | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ownership: 100% Höegh Autoliners • Regional shortsea service in the Caribbean, Central and South America • 3 vessels ranging from 2 000 ceu - 4 900 ceu • Office in Panama City, Panama and Sales office in Miami, Florida |
|------------------------------------|---|

Logistics Solutions

- | | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Autotrans Logistics SAS | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ownership: 100% Höegh Autoliners • Tailor made supply chain solutions for Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) • Head Office: Paris, France |
|-------------------------|--|

Terminals

Höegh Northern Terminal Ltd - Newcastle, United Kingdom

- Ownership: 50% Höegh Autoliners and 50% Nissan Shipping Agency
- Main gateway into Scandinavia and Baltic
- Static Capacity: 3 000 cars

